AMUSEMENTS.

"THE PRISONER OF ZENDA"

—Of all the romantic dramas extant, possibly none has enjoyed the continuous prosperity or favorable criticism that has ever been accorded to "The Prisoner of Zenda," which comes to the Grand to-night.

From the night of its first presentation, when E. H. Sothern began a limited engagement in New York City with this play, which finally culminated in a run that extended far into a second season, until the present time, this famous romance still maintains the first rank in the dramatic offering of its kind.

A carefully chosen cast has been secured and a mass of new scenery supplied for the production by Ernest Shipman director of the tour.

More in the nature of an experiment
than anything else, the management has placed the price for this big attraction at 75 and 50 cents for the lower floor and 35 cents for the Balcony. At these prices the house should be packed.

—Do not fail to hear The Kilties' vocal chorus of twenty voices at the Grand, afternoon of April 14.

—"Annie Laurie" as rendered by the vocal chorus of The Kilties in true Scottish style should be heard by every lover of good music. Grand, afternoon of April 14.

FINE CARRIAGES.—J. S. Wilson & Bro., have just placed in stock some of the finest carriages as ever were sold in Bourbon. You will agree with them when you see them. Their buggies and light traps are all of modern styles. Prices right. (tf)

Republican Mass Convention.

Pursuant to a call of the Committee of the third Railroad District of Kentucky, there will be a mass convention of the Republicans of Bourbon county on Saturday, May 2nd, 1903, at o'clock at the Hinton building, corner Main and 8th streets, for the purpose of selecting delegates to the District Convention to be held at Paris, Ky., May 6, 1903. The basis of representation shall be one delegate vote for each one hundred votes and fraction over fifty votes cast for William McKinley in the election of 1900.

Card of Thanks.

The citizens of North Middletown desire to thank Mayor Perry for so kindly allowing the Paris Fire Department to come to their assistance on Monday night, when our little town seemed doomed. We also take this method of expressing our gratitude to the brave fire laddies who so readily responded to the call. Respectfully, CITIZENS OF NORTH MIDDLETOWN.

CASH.—Don't be stuffed with the idea that there is only one place to get cash for eggs. Davis & Faris are paying highest cash price for Butter, Eggs and Poultry. (2t)

Stallion Show.

Next Monday will be court day and horse show day, and every horse of any note in this and surrounding counties will be on exhibition. The annual horse show, which is usually the feature of April court day, promises to be more attractive this year than ever, as a greater interest is being manifested in the business in this county.

EASTER MILLINERY.—Beautiful d's play in our millinery department will begin Saturday, April 4, and continue the following week. We show an unusually complete line of pattern hats and novelties of extraordinary beauty, and the prices will be within reach of the most economical buyer. (11) HARRY SIMON.

Paris Needs a Hospital.

If there is anything that Paris needs real bad, it certainly is a hospital. It would not only make money for its owner, but it would be an institution that would be welcomed by all classes, and would certainly be a place of comfort for the sick. There is more sickness in Paris just now than has been known in years, and it is predicted by some of the doctors that there will be any amount of typhoid fever in the city this Spring.

There is not a time in the year that there is not from five to fifteen people from Bourbon in the Cincinnati and Lexington hospitals, and if we only had an institution that could compare favorably with these hospitals, it would be patronized by a great many people who it does not suit to leave their home doctors and families.

There are a great many people who can not stand the expense connected with being sick in a strange place.
